Comunidades Latinas Unidas En Servicio (CLUES) Celebrates 30 Years of Service

St. Paul and Minneapolis – October 27, 2011 – CLUES announces its 30th anniversary of service to the people of Minnesota and will celebrate this historic event on Thursday, October 27th at The Depot, located in Downtown Minneapolis.

CLUES welcomes Minnesota's Honorable Supreme Court Chief Justice Lorie S. Gildea as the keynote speaker for the event and is also pleased to welcome Ms. Micah Hines, General Counsel, Office of Honorable Governor Mark Dayton. Ms. Hines will read the Governor's proclamation declaring that October 27, 2011 is "CLUES Day" in Minnesota. Other distinguished guests will include representatives of major corporations, foundations, educational and healthcare institutions, Minnesota State government, in addition to community leaders, partners from other non-profit organizations, and CLUES supporters, Board of Directors, volunteers, and staff. Ramsey County Commissioner Rafael Ortega and Senator Patricia Torres Ray will also be in attendance.

Specialist Emilio Campo, Jr. will be honored with a posthumous, Lifetime Achievement Award for his extraordinary valor and the sacrifice of his life in the War in Iraq. Specialist Campo's father, Emilio Campo, and his mother, Mirna Campo, an employee of CLUES, will receive the award on behalf of their son.

Diego Osuna, Board Chairperson of CLUES and Director of Partner Development – Marketing Alliances at General Mills, states, "General Mills is proud to be the lead sponsor for the celebration and congratulates the organization on its outstanding thirty years of service to the community." Jesse Bethke Gomez, President of CLUES, says, "We are proud to celebrate this momentous occasion with state and community leaders as we honor the past, celebrate the present, and build for the future, and we encourage the community to attend."

Tickets to the CLUES' 30th Annual Celebration may be purchased at www.clues.org.
