Job Fair and Community Resource EXPO 2011

With over 1,000 skilled multicultural individuals expected in attendance at the 2011 CLUES Job Fair and Community Resource EXPO, your company will have the opportunity to connect with qualified candidates to discuss potential employment and resource opportunities. Candidates are equipped with valuable work-related skills and are searching for opportunities to develop their career with your company. Come and recruit new team members that will enrich your company with their diverse language and cultural skills!

The 2011 CLUES' Job Fair and Community Resource EXPO will be held on Wednesday, September 14th at the Neighborhood House at Wellstone Center from 1:00pm-6:00pm. The Neighborhood House is conveniently located on the MetroTransit bus line, just outside of downtown St. Paul. Event registration and set-up will begin at 11:15 a.m. on Wednesday, September 14. CLUES will provide mobile computer kiosk stations for candidates to apply on-the-spot for positions at your company and onsite interview rooms will be available for your use, so feel free to take advantage of the extra amenities.

CLUES offers multiple exhibitor participation levels for your convenience; please select the participation level that offers your organization the largest benefit. Remember, the EXPO is a great opportunity to gain additional exposure to the community and attract potential employees. CLUES encourages you to collaborate with other departments within your organization to maximize your participation and exposure at the EXPO.

Levels of Support and Participation

Amigo Exhibitor: $3,000.00

At this exhibitor level, you will benefit from an extensive promotion campaign focused on the diverse market. Your organization will be introduced as a sponsor of the EXPO, and your logo will be included in all promotional materials. Promotional materials include over 500 bilingual posters and 4,000 flyers distributed throughout the community, career centers, college and university campuses, etc.

A direct link to your company website from our web page, listing your job openings directly on our website, allowing you to start the recruitment and promotion process weeks before the event, drawing candidates directly to your booth the day of the event.

Double exhibitor space in high traffic areas with two 6 foot tables, four chairs, lunch and breakfast for four, the option to insert flyers or promotional materials in the welcome package given to all job seekers.

Donador Exhibitor: $1,500.00

At this exhibitor level you will benefit from an extensive promotion campaign focus in our diverse market. Your organization's name will be included in multiple email alerts sent to thousands of job seekers and community partners that offer employment services throughout the community.
